Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by either Suzumoto et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,048,681) or Araki et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,066,440).

Each of Suzumoto et al. and Araki et al. disclose a silver halide emulsion and corresponding method of preparation thereof, characterized in that said emulsion comprises an aqueous dispersion medium comprising a modified gelatin whose amino group is chemically modified such that at least one amino group is modified to introduce a carboxyl group, and the silver halide grains have adsorbed on the surface thereof dye chromophores in multilayers. Each of Suzumoto et al. and Araki et al. likewise disclose a silver halide photosensitive material containing said light-sensitive silver halide emulsion.

3. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Suzuki et al. (U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2004/0185392).

Art Unit: 1752

Suzuki et al. discloses a silver halide emulsion and corresponding method of preparation thereof, characterized in that said emulsion comprises an aqueous dispersion medium comprising a modified gelatin whose amino group is chemically modified such that at least one amino group is modified to introduce a carboxyl group, and the silver halide grains have adsorbed on the surface thereof dye chromophores in multilayers. Suzuki et al. likewise discloses a silver halide photosensitive material containing said light-sensitive silver halide emulsion.

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Geraldine V Letscher whose telephone number is (571) 272-1334. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:30am to 4:00pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Cynthia Kelly can be reached on (571) 272-1526. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
